8. USER CONTENT

8.1 Definitions. As used in these Legal Terms, “User Content” means any content, data, information or materials that you or another person acting through your account uploads, imports, submits, creates, or otherwise makes available to or through the Services, including assignment instructions, course materials, rubrics, student submissions, grades, comments, instructor feedback, prompts, files, and educational records. User Content does not include Feedback.

8.2 Your responsibility and authority. You are responsible for the User Content you provide or make available and for selecting the persons who may access it. You represent and warrant that: (a) you have all rights, permissions, consents, and lawful authority necessary to submit the User Content and instruct TimelyGrader to process it as described in these Legal Terms; (b) your submission of the User Content and TimelyGrader's processing of it pursuant to these Legal Terms will not violate applicable law or the rights of any person; (c) you will not submit personal information to the Services unless you are authorized to do so; and (d) if you use the Services on behalf of an educational institution, you are authorized by that institution to use the Services and submit the applicable User Content.

8.3 Content standards. You must not submit User Content that: (a) is unlawful or infringes, misappropriates, or violates another person's intellectual property, privacy, publicity, confidentiality, or other rights; (b) is submitted for the purpose of harassing, threatening, abusing, discriminating against, or defaming another person; (c) contains malware, harmful code, or a mechanism designed to collect or transmit data without authorization; (d) contains personal information that you are not authorized to disclose; (e) constitutes unauthorized advertising, solicitation, or spam; or (f) otherwise violates these Legal Terms or applicable law. These restrictions do not prohibit legitimate educational materials merely because they address sensitive, controversial, or mature subject matter.

8.4 Moderation and removal. TimelyGrader may review, restrict access to, disable, or remove User Content when reasonably necessary to operate or secure the Services, enforce these Legal Terms, respond to legal process, or protect the rights, property, or safety of TimelyGrader, its users, or others. TimelyGrader has no obligation to monitor User Content. Except for user-directed functionality and technical modifications reasonably necessary to provide the Services, TimelyGrader will not alter the substance of User Content.

9. RIGHTS IN USER CONTENT; DATA USE; FEEDBACK

9.1 User Content Rights. As between you and TimelyGrader, you retain ownership of User Content. You grant TimelyGrader a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free and fully-paid up license, sublicensable in accordance with Section 9.2, to host, store, reproduce, process, analyze, transmit, display, format, and make technical modifications to User Content to: (a) provide, operate, maintain, secure, support, improve and troubleshoot the Services; (b) process User Content and generate and deliver grades, feedback, reports, and other outputs requested through the Services; (c) make User Content and related outputs available to you and to students, instructors, educational institutions, and other persons you authorize through the Services or your account settings; (d) prevent or investigate fraud, security incidents, misuse, or violations of these Legal Terms; and (e) comply with applicable law or binding legal process (collectively, the “User Content License”). The User Content License continues for the period during which TimelyGrader retains the applicable User Content in accordance with Section 9.6 and the Privacy Policy.

9.2 Confidentiality and restricted uses. TimelyGrader will use reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards to protect User Content. TimelyGrader will not disclose User Content except: (a) to you and persons you authorize; (b) to service providers, such as hosting providers and other contractors, who require the User Content in order to provide services to TimelyGrader, and who will be subject to confidentiality, security, retention, and data-use obligations appropriate to the nature of the User Content; (c) as required by applicable law or binding legal process; (d) in connection with a transfer of all or substantially all of TimelyGrader’s business, provided the recipient assumes the obligations applicable to User Content; or (e) as otherwise authorized by the applicable rights holder. Except as directed by you through the Services or separately authorized by the applicable rights holder, TimelyGrader will not: (i) use User Content for advertising, targeted advertising, marketing, endorsements, or promotional purposes; (ii) publish, broadcast, or publicly display User Content; (iii) use any name, image, voice, trademark, or logo contained in User Content for promotional purposes; (iv) create a profile of a student except as necessary to provide the Services requested by an authorized user; or (v) otherwise commercially exploit User Content independently of providing the Services. A permitted business transfer is not a sale of User Content for purposes of this Section if the recipient assumes these obligations.

9.3 Artificial-intelligence processing and training. You acknowledge that the requested functionality of the Services may involve automated processing and artificial-intelligence model inference to generate grades, feedback, reports, or other outputs. TimelyGrader does not use User Content to train, fine-tune, or otherwise improve its own artificial-intelligence or machine-learning models. TimelyGrader may use third-party general-purpose cloud infrastructure services (e.g., AWS, MongoDB, OpenAI) for security monitoring, performance optimization, or infrastructure management in connection with the Services, which third-party services may contain AI-enabled features that may be trained, fine-tuned or otherwise improved by such third-party service provider, provided that such AI-enabled features do not process, analyze, or generate outputs from User Content as a primary function. For certainty, processing User Content to generate an output requested through the Services, including transient processing, retrieval, prompt construction, and model inference, does not constitute training, improvement or fine-tuning, provided that the processing does not create retained learning from User Content for use across users.

9.4 Usage Data. “Usage Data” means technical, diagnostic, performance, and interaction data concerning the operation and use of the Services that is aggregated or otherwise non-identifiable of an individual. For certainty, Usage Data excludes User Content. TimelyGrader may use, disclose, store and otherwise handle Usage Data for any purpose, including without limitation, to provide, operate, secure, analyze, and improve the Services.

9.5 Feedback. “Feedback” means ideas, suggestions, comments, or other feedback about the Services that you voluntarily provide to TimelyGrader. Feedback does not include User Content, personal information, or confidential information. You grant TimelyGrader a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, transferable, and sublicensable license to use, reproduce, modify, disclose, distribute, and otherwise exploit Feedback for any lawful purpose without attribution or compensation to you.

9.6 Retention and deletion. Subject to Section 15, TimelyGrader will retain and delete User Content in accordance with the Privacy Policy, applicable user controls, and applicable law. The User Content License terminates when the applicable User Content is deleted, except that the licence will continue solely to the extent and for the period necessary to securely retain, recover, or delete backup copies, comply with applicable law, address security or fraud, resolve disputes, or enforce these Legal Terms.

10. OUTPUTS

“Outputs” means grades, feedback, reports, and other materials generated by the Services from User Content. Subject to TimelyGrader’s ownership of the Services and underlying technology, TimelyGrader grants you a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, modify, distribute, and display Outputs solely for educational and internal business purposes.

If you decide to leave the Services and access the Third-Party Websites or to use or install any Third-Party Content, you do so at your own risk, and you should be aware these Legal Terms no longer govern. You should review the applicable terms and policies, including privacy and data gathering practices, of any website to which you navigate from the Services or relating to any applications you use or install from the Services. Any purchases you make through Third-Party Websites will be through other websites and from other companies, and we take no responsibility whatsoever for such purchases, which are exclusively between you and the applicable third party. You agree and acknowledge that we do not endorse the products or services offered on Third-Party Websites, and you shall hold us blameless for any harm caused by your purchase of such products or services. Additionally, you shall hold us blameless for any losses sustained by you or harm caused to you relating to or resulting in any way from any Third-Party Content or any contact with Third-Party Websites.
